

GRENVILLE M. DODGE HOUSE

605 South Third Street, Council Bluffs

As chief engineer of the Union Pacific, Grenville M. Dodge supervised completion of the nation's first transcontinental railroad in 1869. That same year he completed this spacious Second Empire brick mansion, where he lived until his death in 1916. Considered one of Iowa's finest residences when built, it is now open as a historic house museum.